

UNAFRI commiserates the death of the Zambian Leader, President Levy Mwanawasa

The United Nations African Institute for the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders (UNAFRI) has sent a letter of condolence to the government and people of Zambia over the death of their president, His Excellency, President Levy Mwanawasa

In his note of condolence, the Head of Mission/ Director of UNAFRI, expressed deep sympathies and on behalf of the staff of UNAFRI identified himself with the family, Government and people of Zambia, praying for fortitude during the period of bereavement and thereafter.

He noted that the Institute would always treasure the legacy of commitment to the rule of law, good governance and transparency, ideals, which the president demonstrated as prerequisites in making Zambia and Africa, a better place, free from effects of crime and underdevelopment.

In a further tribute to the late President, the Head of Mission pledged to continue appealing for the promotion of the good work initiated by the President at various Fora.